

Wednesday 19/5/2010

Press Release Metropolitan Expo – 12th ARTOZA exhibition 2011

The 12th ARTOZA, the largest exhibition in the Bakery, Confectionery, Chocolate and Ice Cream sections in Greece, Cyprus and the Balkan countries, will be held at the Metropolitan Expo from February 26th until March 1st 2011.

Exhibition & Conference Centre Metropolitan Expo, located in Athens International Airport Eleftherios Venizelos, offers all modern amenities and infrastructure, suitable to receive and take off, such an important exhibition, and ensures easy and quick access to all visitors and exhibitors.

The 12th ARTOZA 2011, having a legacy of history and the actual acceptance and support of all institutions of the sector, is currently being intensively developed. By the time of this writing, 120 companies, the biggest in the industry, have finalized their participation in the exhibition, which demonstrates once again that ARTOZA is the most important Greek and one of the largest exhibitions in the industry, on an international level.

During the 12th ARTOZA 2011, several interesting side events will take place, in the premises of Metropolitan Expo.