

Wednesday 19/5/2010

Press Release Metropolitan Expo – CLIMATHERM International
Exhibition 2012

The International exhibition Climatherm 2012, will be held in the Exhibition & Conference Centre Metropolitan Expo, at the Athens International Airport "Eleftherios Venizelos ", from 1st to 4th of March 2012.

Metropolitan Expo, constitutes the most appreciable events & exhibitions' centre in Greece, providing high class infrastructure, modern services and accommodation suitable to support the most demanding events.

The International exhibition Climatherm 2012, always promoting new products, services, facilities and technologies is a vital activity for the Greek economy.

Renewable Energy, Refrigeration, Heating, Air-conditioning, water, gas, and many other vital technologies, are presented every two years in international exhibition of Climatherm, attracting many exhibitors and visitors from mostly technical sectors (mechanics, refrigeration architects, plumbers, merchants, manufacturers, construction companies, dealers, institutions, government technicians, local authorities, and others) who will now be served the best, in European specifications' premises of Metopolitan Expo.